Office Action Summary

Claims in the application are 1-99.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35
U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-20 and 51-70, drawn to a method of 5 expanding/maintaining undifferentiated hemopoietic stem cells
or progenitor cells by seeding the cells into a stationary phase plug-flow bioreactor having a three dimensional stromal cell culture pre-established on a substrate, and to a method of transplanting the resultant cells in a recipient, classified in 10 class 424, subclass 93.7.

II. Claims 21-38 and 71-88, drawn to a method of expanding/maintaining undifferentiated hemopoietic stem cells
or progenitor cells by culturing the cells in a medium containing a stromal cell conditioned medium obtained from a 15 stationary phase plug-flow bioreactor having a three dimensional stromal cell culture established on a substrate, and to a method of transplanting the resultant cells in a recipient, classified in class 435, subclass 395.

III. Claims 39-50, drawn to a method of preparing a stromal cell 20 conditioned medium by establishing on a substrate a three dimensional stromal cell culture in a stationary phase plug-flow bioreactor, and after a desired stromal cell density has been achieved obtaining the medium from the bioreactor, classified in class 435, subclass 325.

IV. Claims 89-99, drawn to a bioreactor plug, classified in class 435, subclass 289.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Each group involves a different inventive concept based on a different technical feature. Group I requires expanding/maintaining undifferentiated hemopoietic stem cells or progenitor cells in a bioreactor containing a pre-established stromal cell culture on a substrate, and this method is not required by Groups II, III and IV. Group II requires expanding/maintaining undifferentiated hemopoietic stem cells or progenitor cells by culturing the cells in a stromal cell conditioned medium, and this method is not required by Groups I, III and IV. Group III requires producing a stromal cell conditioned medium by a method that is not required by Groups I, II and IV. The bioreactor plug of Group IV can have a use other than for expanding/maintaining undifferentiated hemopoietic stem cells or progenitor cells as required by Groups I and II, or to produce a stromal cell conditioned medium as required by Group III. The bioreactor plug can be used in a bioreactor for culturing a microorganism to produce a product such as an enzyme, or can be used to immobilize an enzyme for reacting with a substrate to produce a product.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
